ENDING:

Narrator: At the end of the ten days Daniel and his friends looked healthier and better nourished than any of the young men who ate the royal food. So the guard took away everyone's choice food and the wine- (Everyone whines) not that kind of wine- and gave them vegetables instead. (Everyone whines again)

Man 1: Where's the beef?

Narrator: To these four young men God gave knowledge and understanding of all kinds of literature and learning. And Daniel could understand visions and dreams of all kinds. At the end of three years when all the men were presented to the King, he found no one to be equal to Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah.

Man 1: (Infomercial style) I lost 15 pounds!

Lights out. The end.
