

A script from

“Let God’s People Go Now!”

by
Louis Merryman

- What The story of Moses and the plagues, told from the view of two of Pharaoh’s magicians. Themes: Moses, Plagues, Miracles, Freedom, God’s Power, Bible
- Who Elbow
Mac
- When Biblical Times
- Wear
(Props) Table
Bowl filled with dirt
Pistil used to grind the dirt
Container of water
Small bottle of red liquid used to turn the water red (food coloring)
Pepper shaker (poison)
Horns (frog horns)
- Why Exodus 7:14-11:10
- How Use sound and lighting to create the effect of an explosion at the beginning. Elbow and Mac should be wearing magician’s clothes and covered in dust after the explosion. Make sure your actors have great comedic timing to make this script work.
- Time Approximately 3-4 minutes.

Elbow and Mac stand behind the table. The sound of an explosion is followed by the lights. Elbow and Mac walk around the stage coughing. They are dirty and dusty.

Elbow: (Angry) You almost blew up my house!

Mac: (Angry) Don't blame me. Blame Pharaoh! Who does he think he is? Just who does he think he is?

Elbow: He's the Pharaoh - big hat - power of life and death. He doesn't think he's the Pharaoh. He knows he's the Pharaoh.

Mac: Who does he think we are? Answer me that? Who does he think we are?

Elbow: He thinks we're the greatest magicians in Egypt.

Mac: Great magicians turn tigers into pretty girls. Great magicians turn pretty girls into tigers. Great magicians don't turn dirt into bugs.

Elbow: If we don't turn dust into gnats, we may be invited on Pharaoh's next crocodile hunt - AS BAIT.

Mac: Dust into gnats. Dirt into bugs. What has our profession come to?

Elbow: Pays the bills.

Mac: Pharaoh has been acting weird ever since that former Prince of Egypt, Moses, came out of the desert. (Mimics) "Thus says the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob: "Let my people go!" "No" says Pharaoh. Moses says "Or else." "Or else what." (Sarcastic) Next thing we know we're matching Moses trick for trick.

Elbow: I wouldn't say that.

Mac: (Bragging) He turned his stick into a snake. We turned our sticks into snakes.

Elbow: (Being truthful) His snake ate our snakes.

Mac: A minor setback. Moses turned the Nile to blood and things died. (Pours red liquid into clear liquid) We did the same thing. Some red dye - (sprinkles pepper into red liquid) some poison - in great quantities - things in the Nile died.

Elbow: My granddaddy told me never to take on anyone whose snake ate your snake.

Mac: Moses brought frogs out of the Nile. We brought frogs out of the Nile.

To read the rest of this script and perform it, download the full version at SkitGuys.com!

ENDING:

Mac: Pharaoh's weird. Now we have to create gnats from dust.

Elbow: How are we going to create gnats from dust?

Mac: Beats me. We can't create living things, even little living things.

Elbow: Only God can do that.

Mac: The God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob -- and Moses.

Elbow: (Cups his hand, calls loudly to his king as he exits) Pharaoh, great king,
Let them go!

Mac: (Does the same thing) Let them go, now.

Lights out. The end.